This month is our member showcase!

Jan Dolan, a long-time member of our the guild will be presenting a trunk show! She has been quilting for 30-plus years. She enjoys challenges and has created quite a few for the guild and joined in many more. She also likes to take classes, and has made many friends and discovered a lot of creativity along the way.

Please remember that the December meeting is our potluck Christmas party and an optional gift exchange. We will present our donations to the different charities that we support during that meeting.

Tuesday,
November 13

6:45-9 Meeting

President's Message

I am sorry I had to miss the October meeting, but I was in Michigan at the time, visiting my family and friends as I usually do each fall. While the fall color was kind of disappointing this year, everyone I visited is doing well. My mother, who will turn 90 in February, continues to crank out baby quilts like nobody's business!

The nominating committee, led steadfastly by Shirley Brown, has worked very hard over the last few months to fill most, if not all, of the available positions for 2019 so the guild can continue to function into the next year. According to last month's newsletter, we still have several posts that need filling, so please help us out. Many of these jobs don't require a huge investment of time. At this point, it appears that we have the following slate of candidates for the Executive Board positions:

President—Christine Oliver
1st VP-----Shelley Wilson
2nd VP-----Janice Quackenbush
Secretary—Annette Fecteau
Treasurer—MaryRuth Wilson
Ways & Means—Ellen French

That said, it has been brought to our attention that we may have inadvertently failed to call for any additional nominations from the floor for any of these positions. If you wish to nominate someone or put yourself into the running for any of these positions and have not already done so, we will make another offer for additional nominations at the November meeting prior to voting. Any additional candidates will be allowed time to present themselves and their qualifications for those positions. If we have more than one candidate for any of these positions, voting will be conducted by paper ballot, winners announced at the meeting.

Our November meeting is traditionally a trunk show presented by one of our members. This year we will be treated to a viewing of lovely quilts made by member Jan Dolan. Jan was our recipient in 2017 of the guild's Silver Thimble Award, and she is a very accomplished quilter who has served the guild in many capacities for many years. On top of those credentials, she's really a very nice person. Please give her your kind attention and enthusiastic applause!

Happy Quilting,

Ellen French, President

February 13-14, 2019

Lecture: The Art of Silk Fusion
Midweek Workshop: Silk Fusion and Mosaics

Tamara, from Golden, Colorado, will provide a two-day workshop combining fibers with textile medium producing rich in luxurious shine and color. In this class, the students will create two silk fusion pieces which will then be used to create a mosaic on the second day. March 17, 2019

Lecture: Enjoying the Journey
Saturday Workshop: Millennium Star

Peggy will teach a quick-strip paper piecing method using assembly-line piecing on fabric strips. Beginners find this method less confusing and easy to learn, while experienced quilters are delighted by this quicker, simplified technique. See her website for photos, and detailed descriptions and supply lists.

Wendy Mathson
April 9, 2019
April 13-14, 2019

Lecture: Storm at Sea - From Traditional to Contemporary Weekend Workshop: Storm at Sea

In another two-day workshop, Wendy will offer three pattern variations to make using the traditional "Storm at Sea" block, vastly simplified by learning a method of trimming as you sew, using squares and rectangles cut from strips. All patterns are supplied. Students are not required to purchase tools, books or kits.

Elizabeth Eastmond
May 14, 2019
May 18, 2019

Lecture: Art Quilts for the Non-Artist
Saturday workshop: Spectrum 18" Square

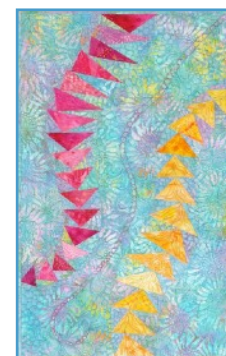

Elizabeth is in the process of adding new lectures and workshops from which we can choose at a later date. This handwork class, done with English Paper Piecing (EPP), is shown with Kaffe Fassett fabrics with a wide range of surface color for a lot of fussy cutting to get the rainbow.

Sue Rasmussen
October 8, 2019
October 12, 2019

Lecture: A Desperate Housewife's Quilt Journey
Saturday Workshop: Curved Paper Pieced Flying Geese

Students immediately move beyond the basic paper pieced geese, by adding a dramatic twist, to design a small quilt (18" x 24") with curved flying geese. In this class, you will learn to design, draw, measure and sew the pattern. Sue will discuss, in detail, the many options available for using curved flying geese in borders or as central design elements — opening up new horizons to curved paper foundation piecing.

Block of The Month 2018: Block #11

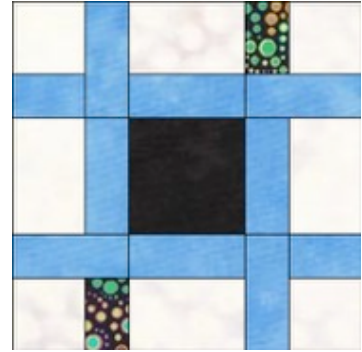

The block we are doing this month looks somewhat like a block you would end up with when making a disappearing nine-patch. As with most of these nine-patch variations, the color placement is key. You will be glad to hear there are no triangles this month. These blocks are due not due until the January 2019 meeting.

The fabrics you need this month are the focus fabric -- Effervescence -- Wild by Robert Kaufman, your coordinating fabric based on the colors in the focus fabric, a black fabric and a white fabric. We are still selling fat quarters of the focus fabric at the meetings for $2 each but we only have two left.

We encourage you to make two blocks, one to enter in the drawing and one to keep.

Cut list -- For one block:

Focus fabric: two 2" X 3" rectangles
Coordinating-color fabric: eight 2" X 4½" rectangles
two 2" X 3" rectangles
Black: one 4½" square
White: four 3" X 4½" rectangles
four 3" squares

Assembling the block:

- Use the photos for color placement and assembly help.
- First we make the middle outside units. These use the four white 3" X 4½" and four of the coordinating-color 2" X 4½" pieces. Sew a color piece to the white piece on the long edge and press toward the color fabric. You should have four units.
- Next, make the corner units. These will use all the remaining cut fabric pieces except the 4½" square of black fabric. First sew a 2" X 3" piece of fabric (either focus fabric or coordinating color) to one side of each of the white squares and press toward the color fabric. Now lay these in front of you with the white square on the left side. Place a color 2" X 4½" pieces of fabric right sides together along the top edge and sew that edge. Repeat for each corner unit and press away from the 2" X 4½" piece you just added.

Now the final assembly! Layout pieces in correct order as shown in photo one.

- Using a precise ¼" seam allowance and right sides together, sew the horizontal rows together, alternate the pressing of the middle row with the top and bottom rows so the seams will nest in the next step.
- Keep rows in order and now sew rows together. The seams should nest and help keep patches aligned.
- Press seams and square the block to 12½" x 12½". Repeat to make a second block to keep!

The winner of the blocks at the October meeting was Tawnya O'Herron. Congratulations!

2018 Quilt Show

A huge quilter's hug to those of you who hung quilts, donated quilts or helped with the quilt show. Hugs and kisses to our men and family who supported us with hanging rope, hanging display quilts and the biggest task of hanging auction quilts in the theater courtyard. We had sixty quilts for the auction and we sold quilts at the boutique, as well. We were very successful this year.

If you have ropes, signs, stray quilts, etc., please bring them to the November general meeting or let me know and I will pick them up.

The 2019 Quilt Show committee is now forming. Our annual Old Town Temecula Outdoor Quilt Show auction and boutique have grown and we need to have more members on the committee. We would like to get sponsors to help us with the expenses that the city used to cover and enable us to give more of our proceeds to our chosen charities.

There are procedural guidelines for each month as well as ongoing help from members of the quilt show committee and the board.

The quilt show is, by far, the guild's largest event of the year but it takes a team to really do it justice. Our members come up with lots of good ideas to improve and grow the show but one person can only do so much. We have many members with skills and talent in many different areas. We also have many new members who have so much to share.

Our annual Outdoor Quilt Show is special and unique to this area and in order to keep it growing and flourishing, your help is needed.

If you can help us with this, please sign up to be on the QS committee!

Rita Dominguez, Quilt Show Chair

Janice Quakenbush, Quilt Show Assistant

We will start the exchange with the number one & proceed in numerical order to pick gifts. Road to California Quilt Show Help

Thank you to everyone who signed up to be a white glove volunteer at Road to California January 24 - 27, 2019. I still need a couple more people to sign up to white glove and at least one more person to help sell opportunity quilt tickets and cookbooks on Thursday, January 24th. The ticket seller job is a sit down job for someone who can't do the 2 hour standing duty of white glove volunteer. With your help our opportunity quilt will get to the Road to California show where we are able to sell lots of tickets. I have lots of packets of opportunity quilt tickets for members to pick up at the meeting. You have until October 5, 2019 to get the stubs and $20.00 back to me. The Inland Empire Quilters will be at the November guild meeting with their opportunity quilt. Bring a few extra dollars to buy tickets to help out our sister quilt guild.

Philanthropy

What a wonderful showing of all of our Philanthropy quilts on the Rancon building during the Quilt Show on October 6th! Ida was able to speak with many people and answer questions about our Guild and our Philanthropy program. MANY hours of volunteer work were evident in the beautiful quilt display. We can all be pleased with the effort that our guild members have made, both in the hand made items and in the monthly items contributed to the Alternatives to Domestic Violence. Ida and I want to thank and and every one of you who have helped in any way.

Here are the remaining items for the shelter, for the year.

2018 VOTM Bylaws Revision

Our bylaws require that they be reviewed and revised as needed every three years. A committee was formed, the bylaws were meticulously studied and revisions made. The revisions were submitted approved by the board. You will be receiving a copy with the changes highlighted in red via email from the newsletter chain. If you don't receive them please contact me at shirleyelainebrown@gmail.com and I will send you a copy.

Although they were voted and approved at the October meeting, it came to my attention that they may have not gotten emailed out to the membership at large as I had requested. So....we'll revisit them at the November meeting. If no one has issues for change, then we'll leave the vote stand. If not, we'll start over by vacating the October vote and putting forth a new motion for acceptance with change.

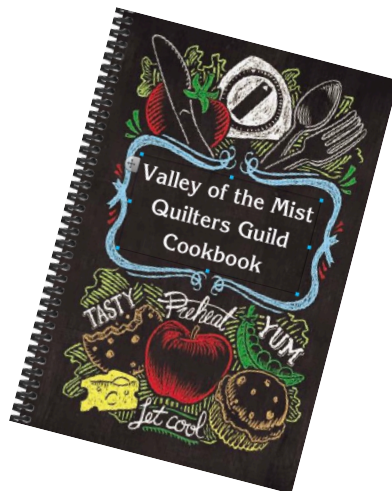

Thanks, all. Appreciate you and sorry for the confusion.
We want things to be done correctly.

We had a Halloween and Fall Harvest theme at our last meeting. Our table earned $146.00 at the September meeting. Thank you to all participants!!

Congratulations to the following winners of the themed baskets. Maria Lucas for "Welcome Harvest", Steve Yanta for "Storm at Sea", Linda McMahon for "Pumpkin Sprite", Ida Colvin for "It's Fall" and Vicki Jensen for "Spooky". Look for Holiday themed items at the upcoming meeting. Tickets are only a $1 each or 7 tickets for $5. It's a fun way to support the Guild and you could also be a lucky winner!!

As you are sorting through your fabric stash, books, notions, quilt patterns, etc., please keep the Merchandise Table in mind. New and gently used items are gladly accepted and appreciated. We will collect items at the monthly meetings.

Show & Tell

Thank you all for the many quilts that you bring each month. It is a thrill to see them. An important part of our monthly meetings is our inspirational Show & Tell. For those that are new to our guild - close to the end of our meetings, members are invited to show off our newly finished or older quilts. The number one "most interesting and fun" agenda item that remains top on the list of the comments received by members is the Show & Tell.

Please come to our table and sign the quilt name or description; and your name into our register. Then sign a ticket for each quilt and place it in the jar. In November, we will have a drawing for the gift boxes we have prepared. We have included in the three boxes: fabric, notions, patterns, hand made needle case and mug rug; and, thanks to Dru at Primitive Gathering – a gift certificate.

We have tables in the back where we would like you to lay out your quilts that you will be showing so all can see them before the meeting and at break. When it's time to Show & Tell, just pick up your quilt (s) and line up close to the stage steps. Please tell everyone your name and anything interesting about your quilt when showing (add the quilter's name). We will help hold your quilt so you can be free to show it off!

For November, please bring Thanksgiving or Fall quilts

For December, please bring Christmas quilts that we can lay on the stage edge to make the room festive. There will not be any formal Show and Tell.

Remember, we always like to see your recently completed quilts regardless of the theme of the month.

We look forward to sewing with you! See you November 13th.
